In 1925 only 4 years after their marriage, Cecil was stricken by a crippling disease and was unable to walk thereafter. However with that singular brand of courage and determination that frequently emerges to one who has suffered a handicap, he applied himself to the task of living with it, and in spite of it. And for 39 years he did just that. He developed powerful arms and hands and could drive his tractor all day after his sons had lifted him onto it. Needless to say, the help and encouragement that Flo gave him through those years must be recognized.

Cecil died November 23, 1964 and is buried in Webster City, Iowa. They had 8 children, C7 to C14 inclusive. Flo lives in Stanhope, Iowa near several of her children and a number of married grandchildren.

*Flo died at 19, 1973 in Rochester, Minn.

ANCESTRY OF BERTHA WORKMAN AND MARTIN ADAMS FROM JACOB WORKMAN

FROM PETER BILYEU 1780-1863

JACOB WORKMAN(1740-1821), who as shown by these charts was an ancestor of nearly all of the Workmans and many of the Bilyeys in early Illinois, has a distinguished record, both as a soldier in the Revolutionary War and as a daring pioneer. The official records of THE DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION show his service as "A sharpshooter in the Revolutionary War, having enlisted August 26, 1776". His place of residence at that time was shown in those records as Washington County, Maryland. He was rewarded for his war service by grant of title to Military Lot No.,3660, Fort Cumberland, Maryland.
